AN IMPORTANT CAPTURE.*Two Clever Pickpockets Placed Under Arrest.

Detectives Helan, Boyd, Horne, and Watson effected an important capture yesterday afternoon when they arrested two pickpockets at the Rock Creek transfer loop, on the Chevy Chase branch of the Capital Traction Company. The men were caught in the act of picking a pocket, and when searched were found to have in their possession such damaging evidence as "black clothes" and extra hats. The prisoners gave their names as John Hill and Frank Williams, aged, respectively, twenty-four and twenty-two years. They will be arraigned in the Police Court this morning.

In the arrest of Hill and Williams the police believe they have secured the pickpockets who have been doing the extensive robbing of street car passengers at the transfer station for the past week. Numerous reports of losses have been made at the detective office within that period, and in every instance the victim was either getting on or off a car.

The four detectives mentioned were detailed yesterday by Inspector McDermott to protect the passengers at the station, and after a long watch they caught the men operating. The method of the men was to approach a passenger and insert a hand in his pocket. The hand was covered by the black cloth laid over the sleeve at the wrist, thus preventing any one watching from seeing the hand while working. In case the person being robbed should feel the hand in his pocket the thief could easily jump into the crowd, and not only lose himself, but disguise himself by the change of hats, so that in the event of again meeting the intended victim he would not be readily recognized. The exchange hats were of soft felt, and could be carried without any inconvenience or attracting attention. The cloths and hats will be used as evidence against the men when they are arraigned this morning.

Furniture Facts vs. Fiction are Exemplified in This Advt.

Furniture values that are unrivaled in all Washington. Our "bargain news" (for such it is) for the week commencing May 15 is a volume of the greatest and timeliest values that this great furniture concern ever displayed for your choosing. Altogether there are six chapters—each for its day. The very first page will awaken your interest and impress upon you the position "The Great Providers" hold as the LEADING FURNITURE CENTRE OF WASHINGTON. The list of bargains herein mentioned are not the mythical sort that find their existence only in print—but bargains that will bear rigid investigation and careful comparison. Every article quoted is here to back up every word of this advertisement. Such methods as ours are the only possible ones for a steady, healthy growth, and the daily increase in sales indicates how decisions are being rendered. The earnestness and perseverance with which we notify you of our bargains cannot be helped but appreciated by all sensible people. There's nothing abstruse about our credit system. It's the simplest and most beneficial you could desire. In fact, there's nothing to it—all that's necessary is for you to say you want the goods charged and arrange the most advantageous terms to suit yourself.

BEDROOM SUITES

are of important consideration with us. We are exceedingly careful to underquote all other dealers. You'll find buying one-half the trouble here—assortments give you a wonderful range of assortments—and we can give you a satisfactory suite at any price you want to pay. ERNEST PADGETT SHOT.*Result of an Early Sunday Morning Quarrel.

An argument over a trivial matter at an early hour yesterday morning between Thomas Hardley, Daniel Streets, Edward Sweeney, and Ernest Padgett, at the corner of Fifteenth and E Streets northeast, resulted in a quarrel and fight, which culminated in a shooting affair of a serious nature.

The shooting, which was done by Sweeney, appears to have been prompted by Hardley and Ernest Padgett as a victim. Padgett received a full charge of bird shot fired from a shotgun in the face, neck and shoulders. He was treated at the Washington Anny Hospital, and was later sent to his home. At a late hour last night his condition was reported as not serious.

Sweeney, Hardley, and Streets were arrested by Policemen Lathford, Herbert, Clinton, and Lee and locked up at No. 5 station. Sweeney was charged with assault with intent to kill, and the others were charged with disorderly conduct.

It appears that while the four men were fighting Hardley and Sweeney were getting the worst of it. They became infuriated and Hardley went off to procure a shotgun. When he returned he gave the weapon to Sweeney and he fired at Padgett, the shot taking effect as stated. Padgett appeared to be in a critical condition and was sent to the hospital in No. 5 patrol wagon. An examination developed that while the man was painfully injured his wounds would not prove fatal.

STRUCK BY A TROLLEY POLE.*Conductor Thomas Injured While Collecting Fares.

While walking along the running board of car No. 21, of the Chevy Chase branch of the Capital Traction Company, collecting fares, Patterson M. Thomas, a conductor, was struck by a trolley pole and knocked from his car. He was badly bruised about the face, head, and shoulders, and was treated at Garfield Hospital. The accident occurred at Klinge Bridge, which spans Rock Creek. The time was 5:35 o'clock, and the car was city bound. It was stated at the hospital last night that Thomas was not seriously hurt.

SLASHED WITH A RAZOR.*Fred W. Allen Wounded by an Unknown Colored Man.

While engaged in a fight with an unknown colored man on a car of the Glen Echo Railway Company about 5:45 o'clock yesterday evening, Fred W. Allen, nineteen years of age, was badly cut about the face, head, and neck with a razor. He was taken to Georgetown University Hospital, where it required fourteen stitches to close the wounds. After receiving treatment Allen was sent to his home, at Tenleytown. His injuries are not serious. The fight occurred while the car was in Montgomery county, just beyond the District line. At a late hour the colored man had not been arrested.
